

JOIN YOUR LOCAL COUNCIL

Become a Councillor

Burnham Parish Council is seeking dedicated and motivated members of the community to join the Council, helping to shape local services and providing a voice for its 13,000+ residents on local and regional issues.

We encourage those who live or work in or around Burnham who feel they can bring skills and knowledge to support and strengthen the work of Council, especially those with a background in finance, public relations and marketing, event or project management, personnel, fundraising and development, facilities management, or social enterprise.

The Council is at its strongest when it represents all parts of the community, and we would particularly appreciate input from those that are currently underrepresented, including young people, ethnic minorities, and the disabled.

What's involved?

As a councillor, you would be instrumental in planning for the strategic future of the Council, shaping local policies, and making decisions on how local facilities and services are run.

The Council meets on a Monday evening every 6 weeks. Councillors also have the opportunity to serve on committees, which deal with specific issues such as planning applications or the management of Burnham Park Hall.

Prospective councillors will be expected to play an active role in Council, participating in meetings, attending events and representing the Council on other bodies, and working with Council staff on projects.

Being a member of the Council is a non-paid position. We do, however, cover reasonable expenses.
